IN THE YEAR OF 1952

As we neared the end of our high school days we felt a lump in our throats. It was the end of happy days and we knew it. We might come back again, but it would never be the same. There would never be the thrill which we felt as seniors. OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY, but we were leaving a part of them forever in Shields High School.

ACADEMICS

In one section of our library there were books which revealed to us the learning of the past and inspired us to contribute our best to the future. We often took these books with us from the library into our busy classrooms. Here they became a vital part of our search for truth and knowledge.

Budding mathematicians discover the unknown quantity in M. Seville's algebra class.

Artists went to dizzy heights to catch the Christmas spirit.

Were we surprised! The psychology classes took personality tests, and what we learned about ourselves was really amazing.

"For today," begins Miss Bruner, and a psychology session is under way.

PROVIDED A WELL—

Although two of our senior girls were shut in because of illness, they attended school via the new telephonic system. The little brown box was like a magic carpet bringing them into the midst of our classes.

It was no trouble catching Ed Blish's dynamic voice as he held forth in public speaking class.

Miss McHenry's room was gala with posters for the annual open house.

ROUNDED PROGRAM

The big front doors were opened wide to friends and parents when we celebrated National Education Week. Students in all departments spelled "Welcome" with artistic posters and other interesting projects.

Although squeamish at first, sophomores became biology-minded, and girls, as well as boys, soon learned to dissect without batting an eye.

No chance for a poor frog when Joe Ray and Ann Henderson start cuttin' up!

Activities were as essential to the success of our school as any of the books we might have read. From the assortment of activities which Shields High provided, we each were able to select those which were most enjoyable to us.

Participation in organizations gave us an opportunity to gain invaluable social contacts, to add skills to our accomplishments, and to use the knowledge we had gained in the classroom.

WE HAD A VARIED ASSORTMENT

Seven F. F. A. boys were the proud owners of fine pigs. Livestock takes a great deal of money to maintain and obviously the fellows have done a good job.

OF INTERESTING ACTIVITIES

Patricia Gamble and Bobbie Jo Coryea wait breathlessly for their seniors to serenade them.

Si! See the lovely señoritas on the Spanish balcony. Spanish Club was fun, and members learned much more about the customs and manners of Spain through its varied activities.

Signals were not confined to the football field. Our patrol boys wheeled out the safety signal each morning, noon, and evening to insure safe crossing at the busy corner of Walnut and Fifth.

Patrol Boys—Bob Kendall, [unclear], [unclear], James Banta, Jim Good, [unclear], [unclear] for us.

We all looked forward to Tuesday morning and our weekly convocation. During the first weeks of school we found on our programs Raymond Struck, Hanover football coach, and William Willet, who had recently returned from India.

DePauw University's Collegians presented a program of popular songs, and later Don Bechtold gave an interesting archery demonstration.

We heard also two figures of national fame: Dr. George Crane, psychiatrist, and Rubinoff with his famous Stradivarius violin.

It's a wonder Mr. Sheets didn't turn gray, helping us to meet the printer's deadline on the Patriot.

SPARE TIME OUT OF CLASS

The convo schedule would never have been quite complete for us without the numerous student programs. They often proved that home talent is the best talent.

The speech class "rolled 'em in the aisles" when they presented their play, NO MORE BOYS.

Second only to the cafeteria in popularity at noon was the playground.

WAS ALWAYS CROWDED--BUT FUN

Kids had their last fling on the playground using excess energy in those few minutes before the bell would call them back to class.

Our gustatory appetites were promptly satisfied at the games by Stanley Hall and Lowell Bienneke, those "super poppers," who have become fixtures in the concessions booth.

A tantalizing aroma invariably drew us to the popcorn stand.

NOT ALL OUR DAY WAS CLAIMED BY TOIL

The wise use of leisure time was one of the most important lessons to be learned in high school. Since our tastes and interests varied, we sampled the many forms of recreation which Shields High provided.

Some of us found a satisfaction in helping edit the school publications; some found pleasure in club activities. Others felt the thrill of achievement in athletics. Many could not participate in these forms of recreation. There were some to which all of us could give our heartiest support: backing our school and team at pep sessions, learning to dance at all-school dances, and reading and browsing in the library.

Above all else we treasured the acquaintances we had made, which through happy years had deepened into lasting friendships. Lessons learned from our fellow classmates and teachers will give us greater inspiration and more happy memories than any other part of our school life. "Friendships have been made on a kind of bed rock. Nothing can ever part us."

With a few minutes to spare, Judith Hennessy turns toward the magazine rack in the library.

"One, two, three, glide"—we waltzed round and round the floor.

RECREATION TOOK ITS FAIR SHARE

No ball game would be complete without a dance. When we weren't cutting the rug, we met our friends and talked over the exciting happenings of the game.

The water cooler, parting gift of the class of '51, was a welcome addition to S. H. S.; for now we always had cool, clear water to soothe our parched throats.

"The pause that refreshed."

"We're from Seymour, No one's prouder!" If you didn't hear this crew, you must have been deaf.

OUR ENTHUSIASM KNEW NO LIMITS

What would a ball game be without a cheering section, and what would a cheering section be without practice? Our yell leaders taught us new yells and built up our school spirit during the pep sessions.

There was always room for one more in Edith's Buick.

WHEN WE SHIFTED INTO HIGH

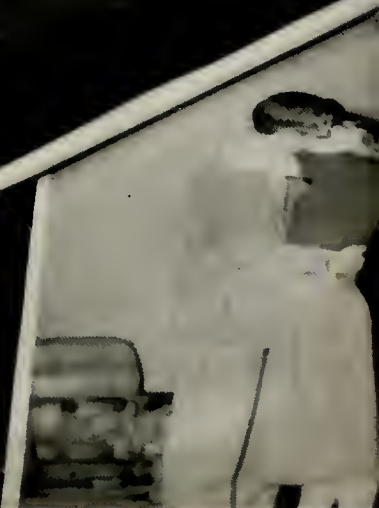

We never got over being envious of the elite who drove cars to school. But those kind-hearted kids were always willing to taxi the rest of us less fortunate ones. Their cars, ranging from jalopies to Buicks, literally bulged with "yakkity", care-free kids.

When we saw a crowd of students gathered 'round a desk, we could be pretty sure it was for a conference with Loretta Butt. If she had not answered a desperate S. O. S. at the beginning of the second semester, the Patriot Staff might not have met its deadline.

"Now what will we write about this one?" Joyce Ann asks Mrs. Butt.

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY...

THE PEOPLE WE KNEW MADE THEM SO!

For just as the pages of an open book would have little meaning without words or pictures thereon, so our lives here would have had little meaning without the people in Shields High School—our classmates, our personal friends, and our teachers.

School Ran Smoothly

Mrs. Annette Test checked absentee lists regularly, and under her careful direction our schools maintained a high average daily attendance.

A good school is impossible without a principal who likes people and is concerned with their everyday problems. As seniors we have all heard his cheery, "Hi, kids, how's everything?" We can vouch for Mr. Ogan's friendly interest and real concern for his students.

In the smooth efficiency of our high school we see the results of his careful planning, of his concern for teacher-pupil problems, and of his sincere desire to promote only those things which contribute to the high educational standards of Shields High School.

With Their Help

"Have you found a green billfold?" As if Jean and Delores didn't have enough to do, they ran a "lost and found" department on the side. Of course, the girls had regular "office girl jobs" which kept them on their toes all the time.

Jean's in the counting house while Delores checks the mail.

Mr. Campbell, superintendent of schools, and the school board spent many hours planning the progressive educational policies which characterize our school system.

The friendly faces of Mrs. Coryell, our Dean of Girls, and Mr. Everdon, our Dean of Boys, were familiar to all of us. Through our years in high school they have always proved helpful and understanding.

Our deans take a breather from the many claims on their time.

"Let's get down to business," says Miss Mary Alice Bruner, Senior sponsor, to class officers: Marilyn Hudson, secretary; Jim Ahlbrand, president; Sandy Hobson, treasurer; and Bernardine Nichter, vice-president.

As Seniors We Went Full Speed Ahead

Because this was the last of the "big times" we would have together, and our school life was drawing to a close, we worked hard to make our last year a memorable one.

We sold magazine subscriptions and our hardest working salesmen were Marilyn Redding and Stanley Hall. The sale of basketball schedule pencils was a financial success as well as a shot in the arm to school spirit. At the games some seniors kept busy selling concessions while still others of us helped at an after the game dance.

Stars were born and great talent was discovered when we produced our class play, MEET CORLISS ARCHER.

There was never a dull moment for seniors in charge of the Patriot, and before it was completed almost every senior was drafted to run errands, get ads, or type copy.

At the end of the first semester everyone held his breath to see if he had made the Senior Honor Roll. Twenty-five of us were listed. Barbara Taulman was at the top with 106 points.

As the second semester moved on, various committees were appointed, and they began to work on the Senior Dinner, Class Day, and other final events.

We seniors, remembering our high school years as the best years of our lives, looked to the future with high hopes.

That "big heads" in the senior class were not uncommon was soon discovered by the committee as they quickly and efficiently measured us for our caps and gowns.

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY...

OUR CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS KEPT THEM SO!

Although books were the nucleus of our school days, there were times when we literally turned our backs upon them and enthusiastically joined the many proffered activities of our well-rounded school life.

Chapter III ACTIVITIES

Student Council: FRONT ROW: Beverly Knott, Janet Mattox, Opal Stockamp, Georgia Sutton, Bernardine Nichter, Jerrine Stevens, and Catherine Burbrink.

Student Council Promoted Good Citizenship

The Student Council, Shields' student governing body, is made up of thirteen members who are elected by their classmates.

Since the Council encourages student participation in school affairs, home room presidents were asked to sit in on council meetings this year. The Council worked on student problems and made recommendations to Mr. Ogan regarding these problems and various school regulations. In January the Council sponsored a dance.

In addition to these numerous activities the Council attended the state convention at Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Officers of the 1951-52 Council were: John Kellam, president; Guy Lustig, vice-president; and Catherine Burbrink, secretary-treasurer.

Faculty advisor was Mr. Robert Bell.

Home Room Presidents:

FRONT ROW: Carolyn Schneck, Carol Ann Frey, Sue Zickler, Mary Stuckwisch, Virginia Borcharding, and Shirley McKinney.

ROW TWO: Don Eddy, Robert Lucas, Gerald Kirsch, Richard Amos, Gene Woodard, and James Casey.

Quill and Scroll, which is an international honor society for high school journalists, began the year with three members: Edith Krumme, Murella Purlee, and Carl Quinn. In the early fall six new members who worked on the Owl Staff were added. They were: Mary Ann Hart, Margaret Sutton, Bob Kendall, Carlene Biggs, King Hardin, and Bill Sciarra. During the second semester Joyce Taylor, Barbara Taulman, Jim Ahlbrand, and Sandy Hobson, members of the Patriot Staff, were also elected to membership.

Requirements for Quill and Scroll are: The applicant must be a junior or a senior, must be a member of the Owl or Patriot Staff, and must have had a hundred inches of copy printed or have sold fifteen ads.

Faculty advisor was Mrs. Loretta Butt.

Our Spirits Rose With Each Crescendo

During the football season the Marching Owls, consisting of 65 members led by drum major Alice Schneck, made numerous appearances. Everyone looked forward to the half of each home game when the band put on snappy musical shows. Highlight of the marching season was a trip to an I.U. football game where the Marching Owls participated in a review at the half time.

After the football season the Concert Band made up of 71 musicians took the spotlight, while the Marching Owls retired for the winter.

Three concerts were presented during the year. Individuals of the band participated in the solo and ensemble contests at Hanover and brought home many honors. The band promoted good will between schools by taking part in good-neighbor festivals at Madison, Rushville, and Bedford.

Beginning Choir

The Beginning Choir is a training group for vocal talent. This choir sang a great amount of choral material for training purposes throughout the year and sang for a school convocation program at the end of the school year. Many of the students were chosen to advance to the Concert Choir for the next season.

Girls' Ensemble

The Girls' Ensemble presented many entertaining programs both in and out of town during the school year. The girls traveled to Camp Atterbury to present a program to the hospital patients and later in the year journeyed to Worthington, Indiana to entertain the Worthington Lions Club and their guests. The Ensemble appeared before the local service clubs, business and social organizations. All appearances were made in bright navy blue and white costumes which the girls made for their numerous appearances.

Three Vocal Groups

SITTING: Georgia Allen, Phyllis Hoeferkamp, Alice Yeager, and Jackie Jo Tracey. STANDING: Maxine Williams, Ann Henderson, Jane Bickenheuser, Judy Stark, Sonya Ballard, Donna Dustin, Janet Sutherland, Shirley Kiel, and Marilyn Riordan.

Provided Excellent Entertainment

The Shields Concert Choir, as in past years, maintained a busy schedule of programs and concerts throughout the city of Seymour. They presented programs before local service clubs, church organizations, and school convocations.

The choir took part in the annual "Valley Choral Festival" held in Jeffersonville with George F. Krueger as guest conductor.

For the second consecutive year, the organization sponsored the "Singing Hoosiers" from Indiana University, who presented an outstanding program to students and townspeople.

Several members of the choir appeared with solos on various programs throughout the community.

Mr. David Davenport, of the music department, directed the three vocal groups.

The officers were: president, Sandy Hobson; vice-president, Alice Yeager; treasurer, Mary Kasting; librarian, Don Decker.

FRONT ROW: Frances Deaton, Maxine Williams, Beverly Hall, Mary Kasting, Judy Ashcraft, Alice Yeager, Betty Haycraft, Donna Dustin, Monaei Englehardt, Jackie Tracey, and Marilyn Polley.

THIRD ROW: Phyllis Hoeferkamp, Janet Sutherland, Marilyn Riordan, Kenneth Lewis, Judy Stark, Barbara Taulman, Bob Kendall, Donna Synder, and Carol Frey.

FOURTH ROW: Dorothy Gerth, Sonya Ballard, Georgia Allen, Bill VanVoorhies, Beverly Knott, and Nancy Browning.

SIXTH ROW: Harlan Heideman, Dick Bohnenkamp, and Norman Huber.

SEVENTH ROW: Larry Langley.

BACK ROW: Accompanist, Joan Martin; Director, Mr. Davenport.

7. F. A. Boys Excelled in Numerous Projects

FRONT ROW: Leon Hoevener, Lowell Beineke, Don Redicker, Delbert Kilgas, Harold Schroer, Robert Rieckers, James Casey, Stanley Hall, Paul Boxman, and Edward Bode.

SECOND ROW: Robert Williams, Eugene Pianck, Melvin Coryea, Earnest Coffelt, Guy Williams, Ernil Myers, Walter Robbins, Kenneth Nieman, Randall Bobb, Dale Woodard, and John Oberring.

THIRD ROW: Mr. Lewis, Kenneth Tormoehlen, Richard Darlage, Edward Massengale, Harold Loyd, Bill Montgomery, Harold Marsh, and Lynn Grein.

FOURTH ROW: Walter Pfaffenberger, Eugene Lucas, Lee Roy Jewell, Harold Wilson, Max Noblitt, Donald Banister, Arnold Wilson, Lionel Henderson, Donald Sager, James Bowman, and Bill Ruddick.

The local chapter of the Future Farmers of America, which is a national organization, completed many noteworthy projects during the year. Perhaps the best known was the work done on the 240 acre school farm at Freeman Field, where the members had a chance to apply methods learned in class.

Community activities included the killing of pests on neighboring farms, the selling of garden seed, and the building of concrete hog troughs which were sold to farmers.

The F. F. A. attended the district elimination contest in February and the State Convention in April. Also during April the members made a trip to Washington, Indiana, for a judging contest.

Officers of the F. F. A. were: Don Redicker, president; Paul Boxman, vice-president; Stanley Hall, secretary; Harold Reichenba, treasurer; and Lowell Beineke, reporter.

Faculty advisor was Mr. Nelson Lewis.

Commercial Club "Went Places"

FRONT ROW: Donna Sue Clark, Hilda Hamilton, Patty Harper, and Ruth Ann Hirtzel.

SECOND ROW: Altamae Heckman, Sonya Ballard, Estella Bell, Vivian Hall, and Alice Payne.

THIRD ROW: Maysel Stuckwisch, Betty Simmons, Evelyn Manning, Irene Nicholson, and Barbara Applegate.

FOURTH ROW: Shirley McKinney, Marita Short, and Maxine Montgomery.

Easily the most thrilling event of the year for Commercial Club members was the two day trip to Chicago on the 2nd and 3rd of May. As guests of the Gregg Publishing Company in Chicago, they visited many business offices and enjoyed a sightseeing tour of the city.

Activities of the year for the club included the sponsoring of the Valentine Dance at which Patsy Lucas was crowned "Sweetheart Queen," and the selling of small statuettes and greeting cards.

The officers were Donna Sue Clark, president; Hilda Hamilton, vice president; Patty Harper, secretary; and Ruth Ann Hirtzel, treasurer.

Faculty advisor to the group was Mr. Marvin Dyer.

KNEELING: Guy Lustig, Jim Ahlbrand, Lester Hunt, Sandy Hobson, Ed Blish, and Ed Williams.
STANDING: Don Siefker, Bob Kendall, Harry McGuire, Tom Murray, Bill Munden, John Emhuff, John Montgomery, Richard Linke, Norman Huber, Richard Nierman, and Mr. Unger.

Hi-Y Had Christmas Spirit

Hi-Y boys made our hearts as well as our building light and gay at Christmas when they temporarily replaced Minerva with a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and garlanded colored lights across the front of our building.

They sponsored a school dance early in the basketball season, and several members attended a district Hi-Y and Tri-Hi Convention at Salem on March 18.

Officers were: John Montgomery, president; Guy Lustig, vice-president; Ed Williams, secretary, (first semester); Richard Nierman, secretary, (second semester); Lester Hunt, treasurer, (first semester); Richard Linke, treasurer, (second semester); Jim Ahlbrand, sergeant-at-arms; and Bill Munden, chaplain.

Mr. Harry Unzer was the Hi-Y sponsor.

Lettermen Restored Athletic Pictures

The Lettermen's Club, whose membership is limited to boys winning an athletic letter in some sport, completed several projects and activities throughout the year.

Under the sponsorship of Coach Joe Gili, the "S" men restored and reclaimed many of the pictures of previous Shields' athletic teams, and tried to complete the collection.

The Lettermen had a basketball team this year which played many of Seymour's independent teams.

Officers of the club were: Bill Findley, president; Curt Patrick, vice-president; Darl Kriete, secretary; and Jack Green, treasurer.

"Not So Easy, Publishing a Book," Found Patriot Staff

The "Book of the Year" was published by nineteen members of the senior class. Editor-in-chief was Barbara Taulman with Jim Ahlbrand as business manager.

During the year the Patriot staff had three advisors. Soon after school began, Mrs. Anne Amos organized the staff and helped prepare the picture schedule. Because of illness Mrs. Amos did not return to teach after Christmas so Miss Mary Alice Bruner, senior advisor, and Mrs. Loretta Butt came to the rescue to help with the many details of advertising and copy.

Mrs. Anne Amos with the Patriot editors started the ball rolling.

"Good! We've got another page." The advertising staff brought in the loot.

This year's Owl Editor, Edith Krumme, and advisors, Mrs. Anne Amos and Mrs. Loretta Butt, supervised the 35 staff members in publishing 14 issues of the 1951-52 Owl.

The Owl staff sponsored two dances at sectional tourney time. Miss Ruth Mae Rotert, Freetown, was elected Sectional Queen at the Saturday night dance and was crowned with ceremony by Denver Hill, who became Sectional King by virtue of his position as captain of the victorious team.

The Owl Staff provided students of S. H. S. with an up-to-date and well-written account of the activities and events of the school year.

"Looks pretty good this time," page editors agree.

Art Club Joins Parade of Organizations

FRONT ROW: Dortha Powell, Norma Wilson, and Larry Langley.

THIRD ROW: Maxine Montgomery, Jacquelin Crum, Sharon Mundy, Shirley Rust, and Nancy Simmons.

The Art Club is a new organization formed during the second semester under the sponsorship of Mr. Charles Hunterman. It is made up of art students who have a genuine interest in the field. Requirements for membership are two: at least a "B" average in art and the completion of one year in the subject.

During club meetings the time was used to create layouts for decorative panels showing student life around Shields High School and the community. Two persons combined ideas for each topic, designing an original scene so that it could later be painted.

Highlights of the Club's activities were field trips which offered first-hand information in different phases of art. Production methods and techniques were observed at the Graessle-Mercer Company.

On April 25 the club journeyed to Indianapolis where they visited the American Art Clay Company, The Wm. H. Block Display Construction Department, and The Indianapolis Engraving Company.

Officers were: Jacquelin Crum, president; Sharon Mundy, vice-president; Norma Wilson, secretary; and Nancy Simmons, treasurer.

Cousin Agnes is horrified at Dexter's exclamation, "The only way to handle women is to treat them rough."

In November the senior class issued a general invitation to "Meet Corliss Archer." And Corliss, along with her rollicking high school crew, made the large audience who attended the senior play recall just how happy and gay young hearts can be.

Supporting Maxine Williams, who played the title role, was Sandy Hobson as her ever-faithful boy friend, Dexter. Adding to the humor was Joyce Taylor as the meddling Cousin Agnes. Others in the cast were: Dick Mattox, Mr. Archer; Wilma Neawedde, Mrs. Archer; Alice Yeager, Louise, the Maid; Bernardine Nichter, Mildred, Corliss' best friend; Eddie Williams, Mr. Franklin; Beth Ann Smith, Mrs. Franklin; Barbara Vogel, Betty; Dick Patterson, a doctor; and Murella Purlee, a nurse.

Much credit for the success of the play goes to Mr. Kenneth Warbritton, who directed it, and to Edith Krumme and Tom Trotter, who assisted him.

Junior and Senior Y-Teens helped promote good will in the community and among the many students at S. H. S.

Each club assisted with several worthy projects. The Junior Y-Teens aided the National Heart Foundation with its annual campaign. Members of both clubs helped with the March of Dimes and also sponsored the Junior Red Cross. Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were prepared for needy families in town. Money was also contributed to a project which sent candy to foreign children.

Y-Teens sold Christmas cards and later in the year held a white elephant sale.

Highlight activity in each club was the Mother-Daughter banquet held at the end of the club year.

The Latin Club, organized many years ago, supplements the work of the class through plays, talks, songs, and Latin games. Any member of the department is eligible for membership in this club which studies classical influence in the community and throughout the world.

The club gave financial assistance for carrying on the Latin Contest. Many of the club's members participated in the local, regional, and state contests again this year.

Under the sponsorship of Miss L. Grace Anderson, the club provides an opportunity for leadership training by stressing good parliamentary procedure in its meetings.

The Motto of the Latin Club is "Carpe diem"—Make use of the day.

Highlighting the year for the Spanish Club was its annual Christmas party. Gifts were distributed at this time by Los Reyes Magos, the three wise men who traditionally deliver gifts to good Spanish children—or switches to the bad ones.

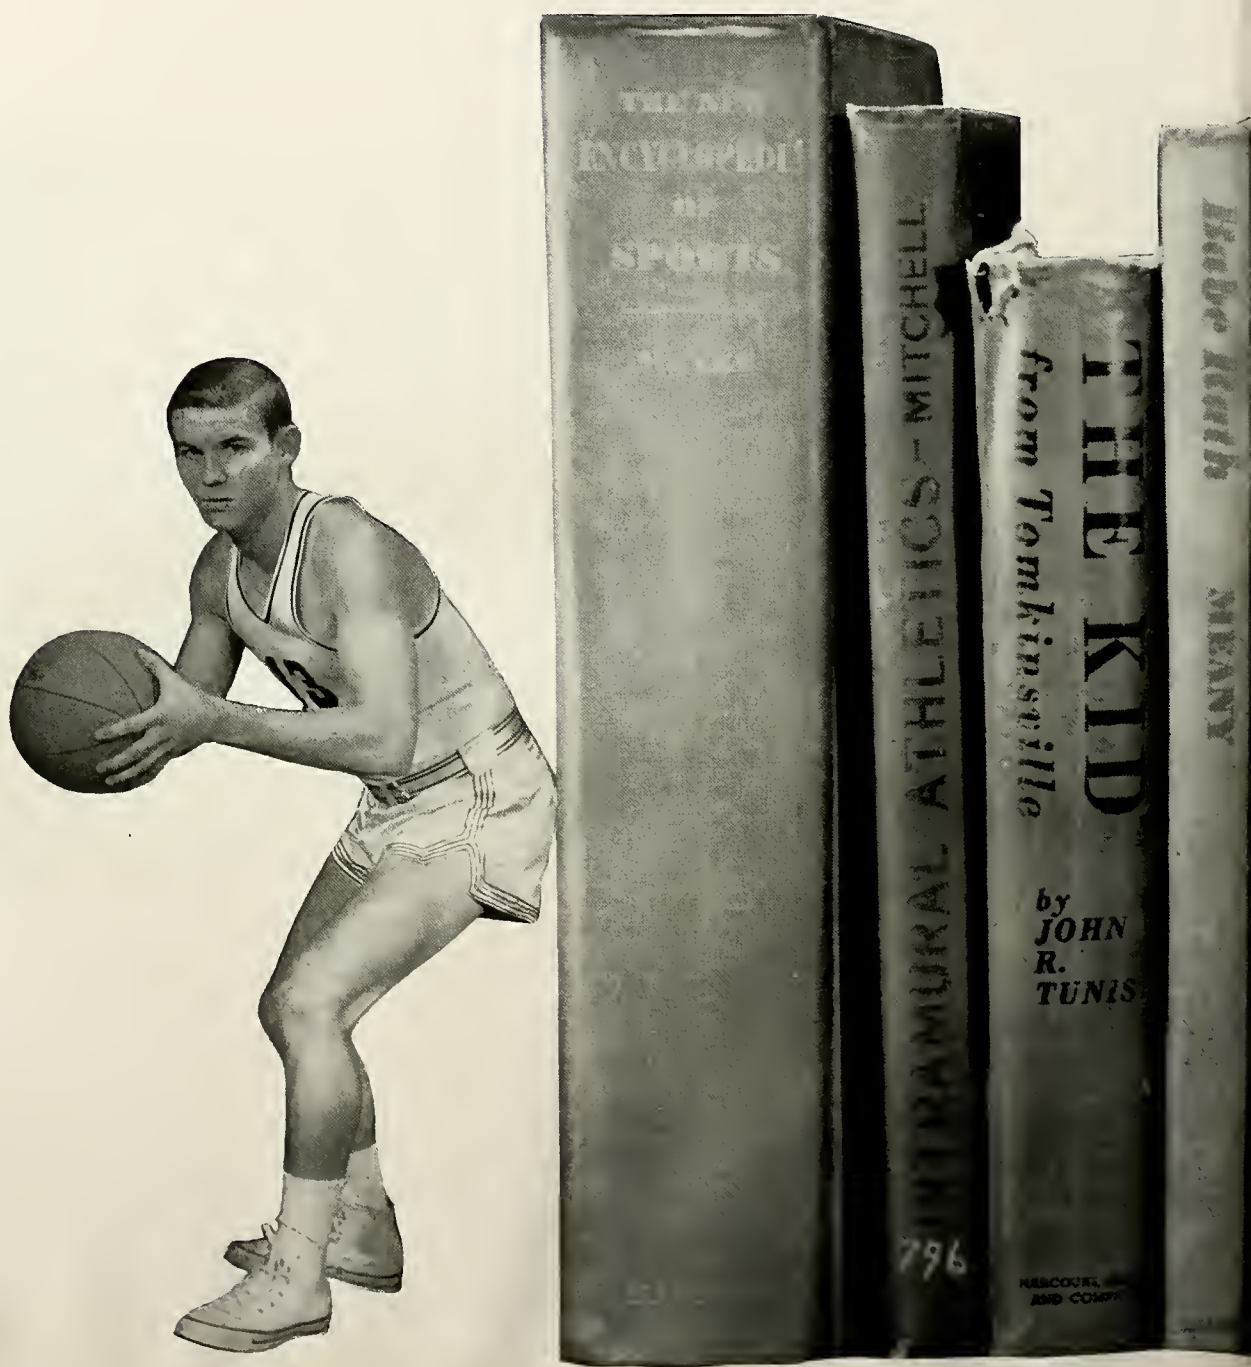

Increasing knowledge and appreciation of our neighbor Mexico was the topic of a talk given by Mrs. Christine Rapp. In the spring the club sponsored a convocation at which the Rev. Ernst, missionary to South America, spoke.

Members of the Spanish Club can be readily identified by their handsome new silver membership pins.

The club was encouraged by its sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Feaster, to appreciate and understand Spanish music, games, customs, and habits.

Officers were: Ed Williams, president (first semester); Dan Patrick, president (second semester); Dan Patrick, vice-president (first semester); Bill Sciarra, vice-president (second semester); Bernadine Lewis, secretary; Jerry Parr, treasurer; and Murella Purlee, program chairman.

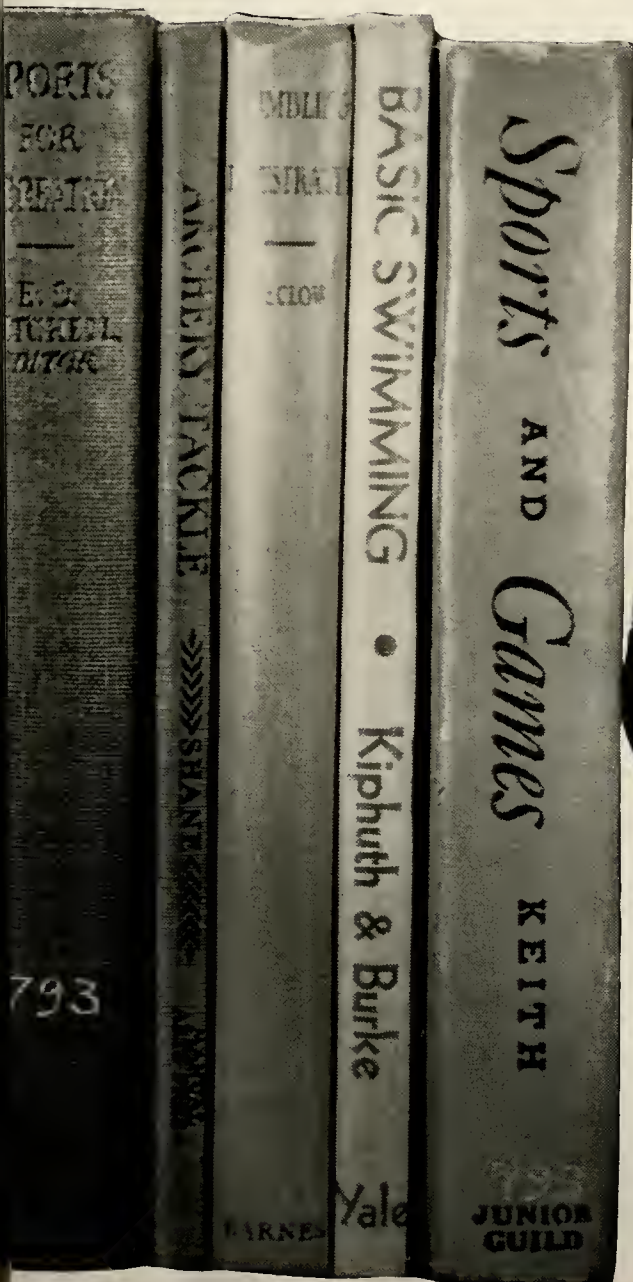

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY...

OUR ZEAL FOR SPORTS PROVED IT TRUE!

Those studious hours spent with books were balanced by lighter hours dedicated to our sports, in which we participated with unlimited vim and vigor. We greeted in its turn each seasonal sport as it passed in the long procession of athletic activities.

Chapter IV ATHLETICS

Grid Owls Had Winning Season

Shields' Gridmen wound up the 1951 season with a good record of 5 wins and 4 losses.

Coach Joe Gili's Owls started the season at Connersville and were surprised by the Spartans, who carried off the game 20-4.

Playing their first home game of the season the Owls lost a hard fought battle to the North Vernon Panthers, 13-7.

With Darl Kriete going over for the winning touchdown in the last minutes of the game, Seymour defeated their arch rivals, the Columbus Bul'dogs in a real thriller, 33-27.

Thirty-three seemed to be a lucky number, for the Owls won their next game over the Rushville Lions by a thick 33-13.

Fighting innumerable bad breaks, Shields fought the Southport Cardinals to a standstill in an outstanding grid performance but came out on the wrong end of 19-14.

SECOND ROW: Bill Sciarra, Jim Shelton, Ronald Williams, Bill VanVoorhies, Harry McGuire, Ronald Phillips, Ronald Blevins, Bill Ruddick, Kenny Lewis, Bill Cooper, and Harold Marsh.

THIRD ROW: Carmin Sciarra, Tom Henley, Bob Green, Dick Himmelheber, Joe Maschino, Joe Franke, Jim Brown, Mort Lutes, James Copeland, Jerry Huckelberry, and Pat Schrink.

Bill Sciarra makes a first down before being grounded from behind.

Three determined North Vernon Panthers haul down Duke Hill after a good gain.

Chalked Up 5 Wins 4 Losses

The determined Owls beat Franklin's Grizzlies 19-18, even though two of Jackie Green's touchdowns were called back.

With Duke Hill scoring three of the six touchdowns Gili's boys ran wild over the Shelbyville Bears 40-19.

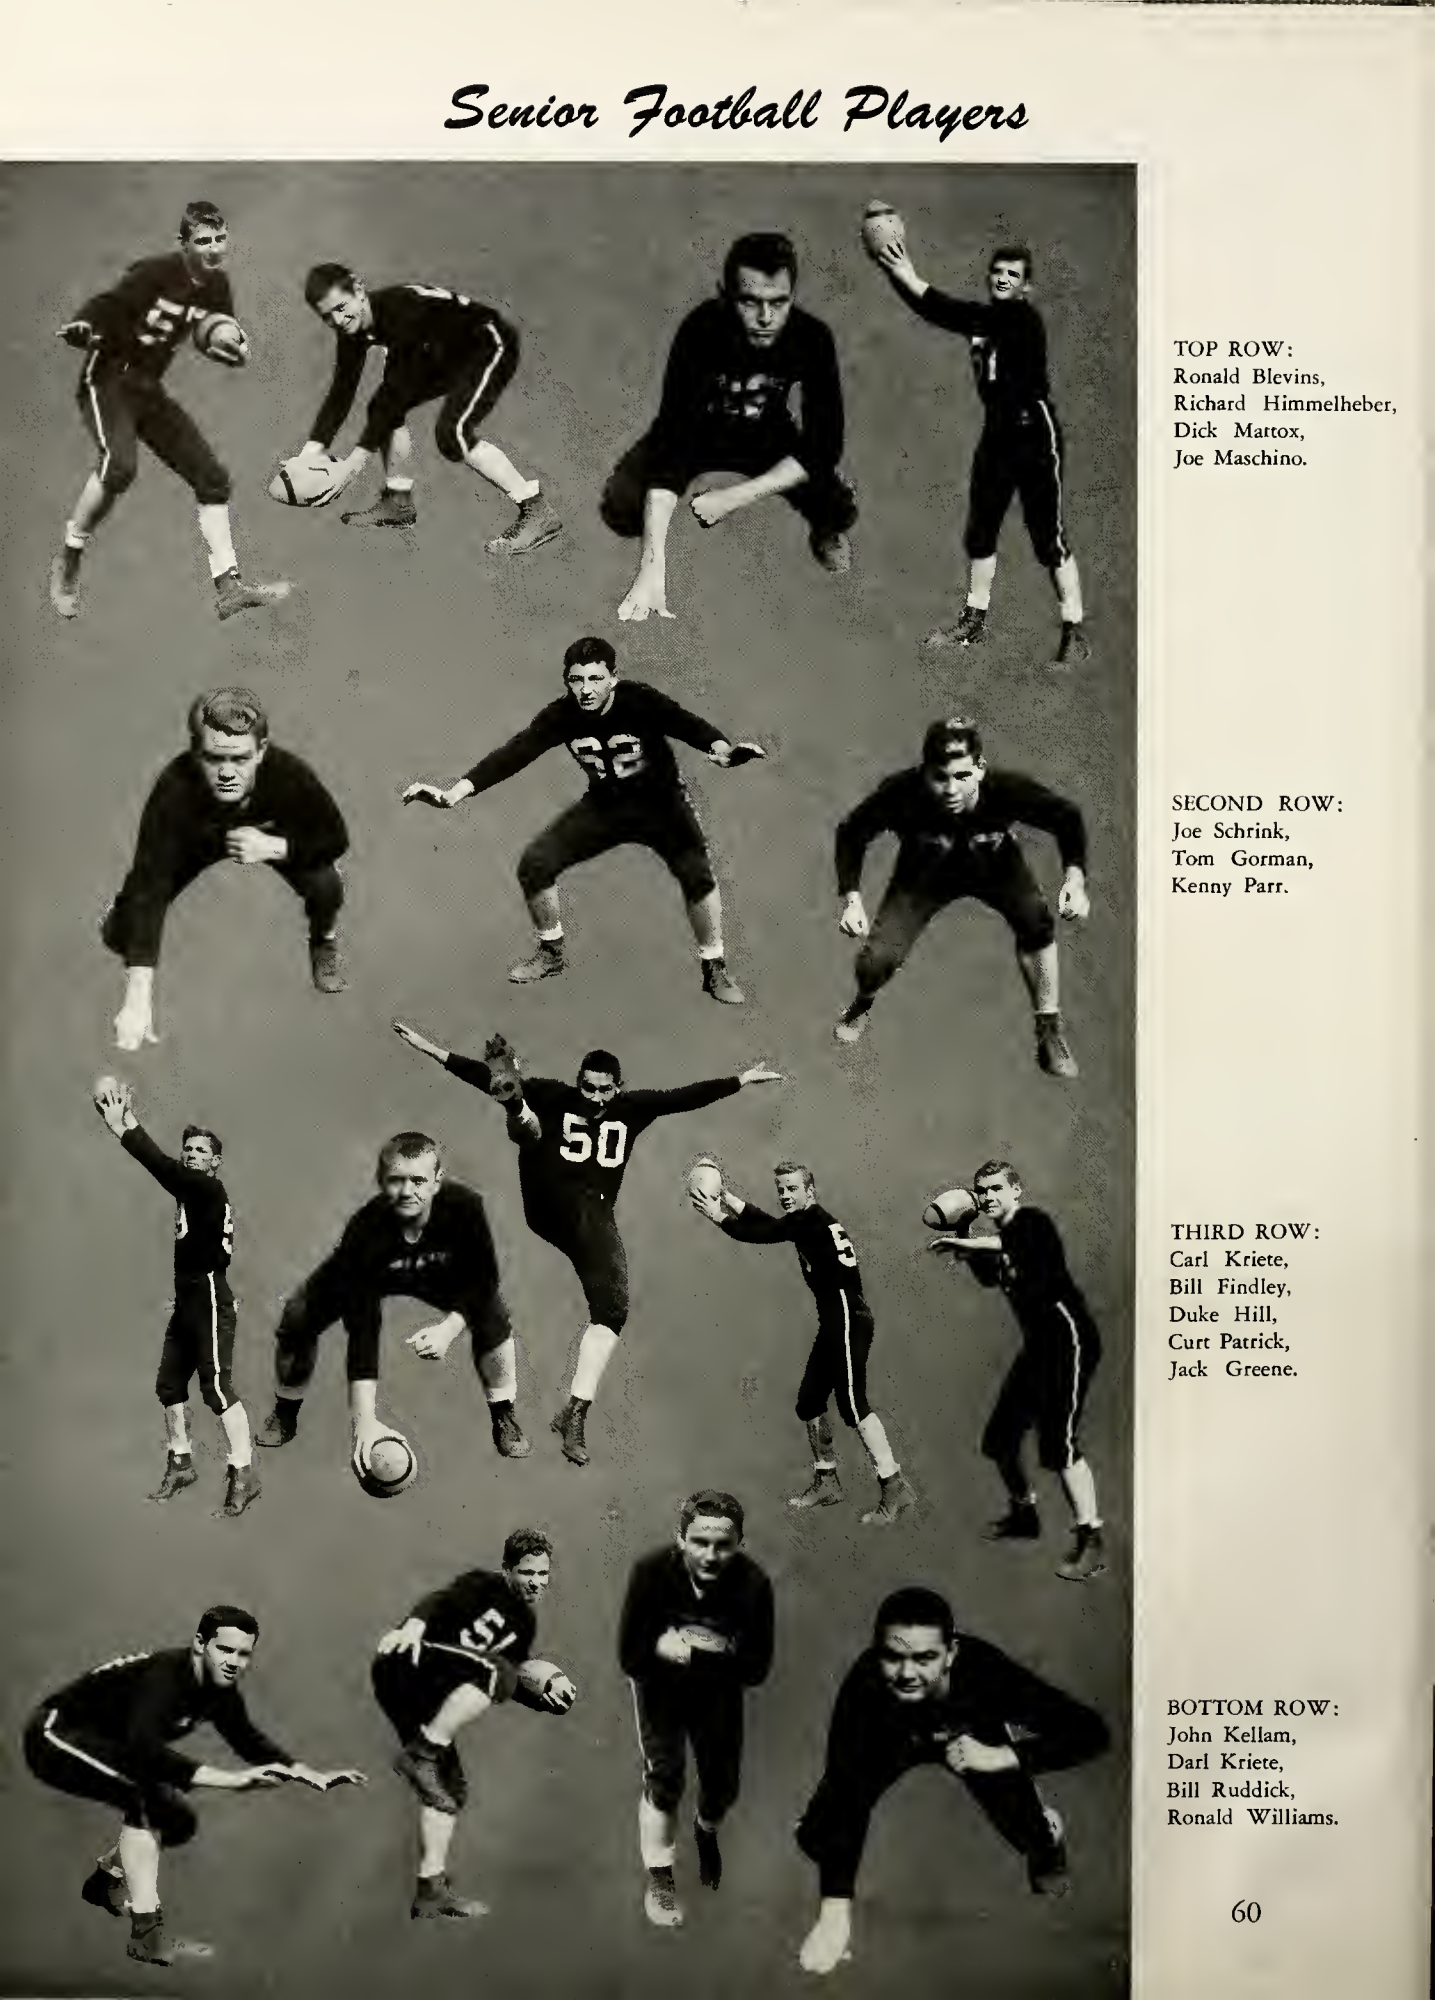

Bad weather and bad breaks gave the Owls a defeat at the hands of the Bedford Stonecutters, 7-0.

The Owls closed the season by turning in a smashing 19-0 win over West Lafayette in a game marked by brilliant line play.

Duke's off, with Kenny Parr leading the way, for some badly needed yards against North Vernon.

Senior Gridmen Received Many Honors

The Shields Owls placed eight men on the All-South Central Conference teams. Three seniors were given berths on the first team—Curt Patrick at end, Jack Green at halfback, and John Kellam at tackle. Kenny Parr, Bill Findley, Duke Hill, Darl Kriete, and Kenny Lewis received honorable mention in the conference ratings.

Jack Green, Duke Hill, Curt Patrick, and John Kellam were also given honorable mention on the INDIANAPOLIS NEWS All-State Team.

At the end of the season seniors Bill Findley and Darl Kriete were elected honorary captains.

Vivacious Leaders Backed Our Team

They all got in a huddle and this is what they said,
"Our team is red hot! !"

This year the Owls were fortunate in having a sparkling, peppy quintet of yell leaders. The five—Sonny Borcharding, Don Powers, Georgia Sutton, Monaei Englehardt, and Judy Ashcraft—really put their hearts and souls into their work and gave Shields' boosters solid leadership in cheering their teams to victory.

FRONT ROW: Bill Sciarra, Joe Franke, Bill Cooper, Bob Green, and Carmin Sciarra.

Fighting Owls Capture First Conference Crown

Shields High School's hardhitting Owls, under the skillful coaching of Edwin Lsykowinski, finished the 1951-52 season with a record of fifteen wins and three losses. After an uneven start, the Owls chalked up eight consecutive victories before they were stopped by the New Albany Bulldogs in a hard fought game.

For the first time the Owls captured the SCC Crown by coming through with seven wins and one loss in conference competition.

The Seymour squad made good showings in tournament play. For the second consecutive year the Owls won their Sectional by defeating Clearspring, Brownstown, and Medora. In the Regional at Jeffersonville they fought to the finish and were downed only after a double overtime by the highly rated New Albany Bulldogs.

Our 6' 7" center, Harold Wilson, was top scorer in the conference with an average of 15.13 points per game. We also placed two men on the all conference team. They were Dan Englehardt and Harold Wilson.

Undefeated Fresh Team Sets Record

This year's Freshmen team, coached by James Deputy, came through an undefeated season with the enviable record of 17 wins and no losses.

In their schedule they met strong teams including Bedford, Columbus, North Vernon, Brownstown, Edinburg, and Crispus Attucks of Indianapolis.

On January 19, they won a four team invitational tourney.

Although the Freshmen played six minute quarters, they averaged 48 points per game to their opponents 25.

SECOND ROW: Arnold Wilson, Richard Tiemeier, Paul Nichter, and Larry Pearson.

THIRD ROW: Manager Alan Combs, Charles Vaughn, Robert Steinwedel, Lynn Grien, and Coach Deputy.

Track Team Started Season With Victory

The track team, coached by Joe Gili, started spring practice on March 10th. Although the team retained a nucleus of lettermen, there were many spots open for willing members who desired to earn their letters. Student managers were Sandy Hobson and Norman Huber.

Important meets on the schedule for the Owl Thinlies included: the opening meet with Brownstown, April 1; Conference at Rushville, May 3; Freshmen Conference, May 5; Sectional, May 10; Regional, May 17; and the State Meet, May 24.

Baseball Team Had Full Schedule

The Shields Owl baseball team began spring practice under coach Edwin Lyskowinski with a large group of returning lettermen and many enthusiastic candidates who wished to win their letters. The team played a full schedule, with both SCC and non-conference opponents.

Some of the important games played at Freeman Field were: April 17, Greensburg; April 28, Franklin; and May 8, Rushville.

Golf Team Placed High In Conference

The Owl golf squad, coached by C. H. Englehardt, participated in the SCC golf meet held in Seymour, and placed third in conference competition. Darl Kriete, ace golfer of the squad, carried off top honors as Medalist of the meet with a 73.

Other important competition was met on May 5, at Batesville, and in the Sectional on May 24, at Bedford.

Girls Developed Athletic Skills In G. A. A.

Officers plan entertainment for Sadie Hawkins dance.

Volleyball was one of the favorite activities of G. A. A.

Sportsheads

Seven girls were chosen to head the sports' activities for the year. These were: Beverly Knott, volleyball; Catherine Burbrink, basketball; Roberta Maschino, softball; Alice Schneck, archery; Phyllis Hoeferkamp, bowling; Betty Simmons, bowling; and Monae Englehardt, social dancing.

Sportsheads had the "know how."

One-hundred seventy members of the Girls' Athletic Association enjoyed a year crowded with many activities. These included a Sadie Hawkins dance and a skating party held in the spring. Three girls attended G. A. A. camp which was held in April at Columbus Youth Camp. Those lucky girls who had earned plaques attended a plaque play day at Terre Haute.

Mrs. Jane Coryell and Miss Amelia Taylor sponsored the group. The officers were: Janice Sterling, president; Rosemary Spray, vice-president; Marilyn Hudson, secretary; Mary Alice Sallee, treasurer; and Barbara Vogel and Mary Kasting, point chairmen.

WE THANK YOU

The 1952 Patriot Staff extends a sincere "thanks" to the industrialists and businessmen of Seymour for their constant interest in our school and their help in financing our year book.

Congratulations to the Graduates of 1952.

May your training lead to a better citizenship and a better community.

..... It Pays TO WORK AT MURPHY'S

My name is Betty and I have a story which I think will interest many of you. It's about my experience in the retailing field. Believe me, Variety Store business is fast-moving and interesting. Each counter is a store in itself.

Here at Murphy's one learns retailing from the bottom up! I started out as an extra salesgirl, working every day after school. When I was graduated, I was fortunate to be placed in charge of a counter. I never knew how really interesting this work could be . . . it's just like having a shop of my own.

I'm growing here, taking more responsibility as I go. There's still more room for advancement . . . I can work myself into a position of merchandise buyer, section supervisor or bookkeeper in the office. Soon I hope to be selected to train for the job of Personnel Directress in a large new Murphy Store.

All of us at Murphy's have an equal chance to better ourselves. From what I can see Murphy's is tops in training . . . and there isn't a store in town to beat Murphy's on Employee benefits!

If you're ambitious to make a "go" of retailing, join the "Gang" at Murphy's soon as you can.
